★ If you:

- 1. Are a Scoutmaster or Assistant Scoutmaster
(IOLS is required for your "trained" strip)
- 2. Go on campouts
- 3. Are a WEBELOS Leader or Assistant
- 4. Plan on attending Wood Badge
- 5. Just like that outdoorsy stuff

Then you need to attend Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills.

This course gives adult leaders the practical knowledge they need to help Scouts to learn outdoor skills. The skills presented closely follow the Boy Scout Handbook and rank advancement requirements. The purpose of the course is to ensure that new leaders are familiar with the basic outdoor skills at the Tenderfoot through First Class levels, and to show them some proven teaching methods.

The course will be organized as a troop with a maximum of six patrols of eight scouters each to ensure a hands-on, small-group experience. Staff Instructors will be assigned to each patrol to help as needed in camp set up, cooking of meals, map reading, compass use, rope work, woods tools, hiking and packing, nature, first aid, and Leave No Trace.

- WHEN: 6:00 pm Friday March 30, 2012 (check - in begins at 6 pm, dinner on Friday is not included) to 1:00 pm Sunday April 1, 2012

- WHERE: Quail Hill Scout Reservation, Manalapan

- COST: $40 per person (covers all meals and course materials) if received in the Council office before March 23, 2012
$50 per person after March 23, 2012.

The course fee, registration form and completed medical form are to be delivered to the Monmouth Council office. A BSA medical form (but not a doctor's signature) is required to attend.
